

2010 Spring Women's Conventions

Guest Speaker

Patty Lynn

Patty Lynn and her husband Chad, are the Directors of New England Masters Commission located in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Patty believes that women of God have so much potential dwelling inside of them and it is her passion to see that potential unlocked and released in the kingdom of God. Patty has learned that when women cry out "there must be more to life than this", that our Heavenly Father is loudly proclaiming "you're right, there is more". It is her belief, that women can discover a life that is fulfilled and full of purpose when we say to the Lord "here am I".

Patty and Chad have three daughters Chelsea, Cierra and Courtney.
