Ten Simple Ways to De-Clutter Your Life - Angela Abbatiello

There are two types of people on the avenue of domestic households- clutter bugs and de-clutter bugs or cleanies and messies. Most families consist of both kinds. We will examine the fine art of simplifying our lives and organizing our households. Come join us as practical insight and organizational tips will be shared along with a special emphasis for training our kids!

Angela and her husband, Pastor Dan, live in Raymond, Maine. They have two grown children, Vince and Danielle, both married to wonderful spouses, and a beautiful granddaughter, Isabella. Angela was an elementary school teacher for many years, and Dan is presently the Director of Church Development for the Northern New England District AG.

Catch A Comedy - Ballroom (Friday Evening Only)

Do you long for a time to unwind, relax, and enjoy some laughs with your sisters in the Lord? Here is your opportunity! Along with two other workshop selections offered on Friday evening there will also be a new option for you ... watching a fun DVD together!

Craft: Junk Love (mixed media art) - Peggy Lee Baker ($6 fee) (25 Maximum)

Let's step back into time let's say early childhood when you found gems from your grandmothers attic, old trims, love letters, papers that are tattered and torn. Mixing the old with the new we will be creating "One of A Kind Art"!! Let's take an adventure into the world of junking and treasure hunting and learn how to make past items part of your home decor. Preserving the past, remembering our heritage and opening a new whole world to the next generation. Supplies and ideas will be provided. Be watching and reading my blog <http://pegbaker.blogspot.com> for snippets of "Junk Love" sneak peeks.

Peggy lives in Whitefield, NH with her husband, Lee, and their two teenager daughters Olivia and Emilee. She is a SAHM and works a couple of days a week at a Pool/Scrapbook store. This flexibility provides her with the values of time teenagers need, and extra income for her family. Peggy has a love of everything vintage, shabby chic, primitive, and distressed. She enjoys sharing her creative ideas with others in card making, scrapbooking, stamping, and taking something old to give it new life. Flea markets, yard sales, junk shops are her favorite places to discover creative gems.

Why We Believe What We Believe - Jill Czelusta

This workshop will look at the Biblical text and present the "Why?" behind what we believe. Be sure to bring your Bibles as we look through a majority of the books in the Bible to see what they have to say about creation. The goal of this workshop is to equip you to be confident in your faith.

Jill Czelusta and her husband, Larry, have pastored Solid Rock Assembly in Barton, Vermont, since 2001. Jill home schooled her two children through 8th grade and has been teaching high school math and science for over 15 years at Christian schools in Minnesota and Vermont. With a degree in chemistry, she has a passion for teaching science to all grade levels. She has also presented the Creation/Evolution debate to Sunday School classes from elementary to adult. Whether a home schooling mom or a Christian that wants to engage the culture, her workshops will equip you to defend your faith as well as pass it on.

ID, Gap, Day-Age, Ordinary...What Does It Mean? - Jill Czelusta

This workshop will look at the different views of the creation account held by many Christians. This workshop does not look at the creation / evolution debate, but the debate among Christians who say they believe in creation. This workshop is presented from the literal view point. That is to say, I believe in the literal, 6 day creation account as it is given in the Bible. I also believe in a young earth, (less than 10,000 years old) according to the genealogies given in the Bible. As a scientist, I do not feel that least bit conflicted between my knowledge of science and my literal interpretation of the Genesis account.

Current Issues in the Creation/Evolution Debate - Jill Czelusta

This workshop will look at Creation Science in current events and present a basic understanding of the debate. There are a lot of things happening in the world of science today and we should be able to discuss these from a Biblical perspective. The goal of this workshop is to confidently share your belief in Creation from an issue point of view. There will also be a question and answer time, so bring those questions you have had for a long time but did not know who to ask!

"Overcomer" - Healing of a Wounded Heart - Susan Duran

"Whom the Son sets free, is free indeed." (John 8:36)

Sue grew up in a home where she was dearly loved by her parents, but alcohol abuse brought much pain and suffering to her family. Sue will share how the Lord brought her from a life of captivity as a victim to an "overcomer" in Him.

Sue and her husband, Jim, have had the privilege of serving at Windham Assembly of God for the past 24 years. Sue has worked and ministered as the Lead Pastor's secretary for over 17 years. This opportunity has led to great growth in her spiritual walk with the Lord and she has been blessed to develop many meaningful relationships in the body of Christ. Sue not only served as WAG's church secretary, but led the Women's Ministry and was the Missionette Coordinator for many years. Currently, she is one of the leaders of the "Friends" group (6-8 grade girls) at Windham Assembly.

Getting To The Heart Of The Matter - Patty Lynn

I believe it is time to get down to the heart of the matter. The Word of God says in Matthew 12:34, that "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks." It also says in Psalm 19:14, "let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord my Rock and my Redeemer."

What is your mouth saying about your heart? God wants to help us be whole people that speak words of life. In order to do this, we must allow Him to touch those places in our hearts that nothing seems to be able to penetrate. Someone once said "you can't move into the next until you deal with the now." Ladies, it is time to get our hearts filled up with the things that God desires, so that our mouth can be an instrument of peace, love, and encouragement.

Patty has served in the ministry with her husband, Chad, for the past 15 years. Four years ago, God called the Lynns to Connect Community Church AG in Portsmouth, NH, to direct New England Master's Commission. It is through this ministry that God has used Patty to challenge women to become all they can be in Christ. The message of mentoring is her heart's passion. Patty and Chad have three daughters.

Living the Gluten Free Lifestyle - Suzanne Ludlam

Are you, one of your family members, or a friend living with the challenge of eating gluten free? If you'd like to know more about the GF lifestyle, celiac disease, gluten intolerance and sensitivity, and what's behind this hidden epidemic, join us for an informative and interactive time together.

Suzanne was diagnosed with celiac disease in 2002, and her husband in 2007. She is thankful to be the mother of three wonderful grown children, "Grammy" to seven precious grand children, a pastor's wife, sectional WM Rep, and president of the Celiac Support Group of Vermont.

You've Heard of The Great Awakening?... Get Ready For The Great Shaking - Helen Minerella

*"Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the Heavens."
(Hebrews 12:25)*

See to it that you do not refuse Him who speaks. So whatever can be shaken, He's coming after it. Sounds like we are in for our own earthquake in New England. But that's what brings Revival.

Brace yourself for Impact. "For the Kingdom of God suffereth violence and the violent take it by Force." (Matthew 11:12 KJV)
Are you ready for this? He is jealous over you - brace yourself.

Helen has followed the leading of the Holy Spirit in her life. A wife and mother of two sons who are AG ministers, she has found the Lord faithful in all His promises. Helen has ministered at churches in youth groups, Girls Ministries and WM events. She and her husband, Bill, attend Healing Rain Ministries in Seabrook, New Hampshire.

Family Frugality & Stewardship - Nicki Shearer

Are you frugal? Would you like to be? If you're a Christian then you've already got the foundation for it. In this workshop we'll talk about frugality and how that relates to being a good steward. We'll pinpoint a few places where money might be slipping from your fingers and also share ways in which you can cut back and get the most use out of what you already have. Come see how purposeful spending and intentional use can stretch your money a little further.

Nicki, her husband, David, and daughter, Chloe, live in Lancaster, New Hampshire. Nicki is a stay-at-home mom and full-time babysitter of her two nieces. She also blogs about saving time and money at www.domesticcents.com. Check out her site for a peek at some of her frugal ideas.
